BOOSALIS TO SPEAK AT INAUGURAL NETWORKING EVENT

WomenLINC promotes women's networking activities

Introducing a new networking event, WomenLINC is a program designed for women to network with women in the Lincoln and Lancaster County area.

Serving as Mayor for the City of Lincoln during the late 1970's, Helen Boosalis will kick-off the inaugural event by briefly discussing "Why Networking is Important!" on Thursday, June 26, 2003 from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Lincoln Woman's Club, 407 S. 14th St., Lincoln, Neb.

WomenLINC is a new program that brings together young women and established women from all walks of life to create opportunities of leadership, role modeling and education.. This is a great opportunity for women to exchange information, resources, support and ideas.

Reservation deadline is June 20, 2003. For more information, contact the Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission at 441-7716. Future networking events are scheduled at the Lincoln Woman's Club for August 21 and October 16, 2003. WomenLINC is sponsored by Oddiyana: A Center for Women and Girls, the Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission and Friends of LLWC.
